Foreword

In writing to you, The Student Nurses of Rowan Memorial Hospital, I suppose the first thing to do is to introduce myself. I am Miss Rapid Pulse, the mascot for this, the tenth edition of the WHITE CAP.

In order to capture some of the joys and pleasures that you have shared this year, I was chosen to stay with you each day, then record my findings in this yearbook. Although you did not see me I was with you every minute of the year. Proof of this is found in the following pages.

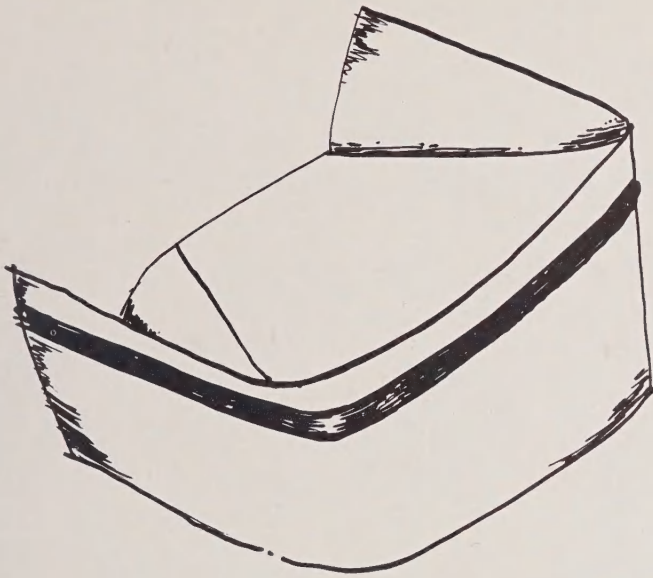

In the future years, if you are able to thumb through the leaves of this book and recapture with vivid memories your activities, how you felt about being a student nurse, and real love of nursing, then I will feel that I have fulfilled my task.

The Florence Nightingale Pledge

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly, to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug. I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my profession. With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class, in sincere gratitude for his understanding of student's problems, his great interest and co-operative efforts in our school of nursing, thanking him for his ever-present smile and friendly greeting, dedicate this THE 1960 WHITE CAP, to MR. EDWARD H. HEYD, the administrator of our hospital. Mr. Heyd is greatly admired and highly respected by everyone who knows him.

To Our Doctors . . . Realizing that all our doctors are deserving of dedication, we wish to also express our gratitude to each and every one on our staff.

State: North Carolina

County: Rowan

City: Salisbury

We, the undersigned, The Class of 1960, supposedly being of sound minds and bodies, having seen the signs and symptoms of our approaching graduation, do hereby find it necessary to write our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

To our Parents: For their loving care and faithful trust we leave our hopes that our lives may be as successful as their fondest dreams would have them be.

ARTICLE II

To the Faculty: We extend our appreciation for patiently guiding us step by step up the ladder toward graduation.

ARTICLE III

To the Doctors and the Nurses: For their understanding, we leave our admiration and respect.

ARTICLE IV

To Rowan Memorial Hospital: We leave our deepest respect, loyalty, and heartfelt thanks for helping us to attain our pin, white cap, and white uniform.

ARTICLE V

To our Class Advisor, Miss Suggs: We express our thanks for the helping hand she gave us in this our busy senior year.

ARTICLE VI

To our Housemothers: We express our appreciation for carefully watching over us and for meeting our many needs with untiring hands and sunny smiles.

ARTICLE VII

To the various individuals we leave the following:

I, SANDY KIMBRO, leave my love for psychiatry to "Maggie" Bell, in hopes she comes out like me, with nothing more than a swollen mouth, ripped up uniforms, and a Schizoid personality.

I, EDITH STALEY, will to Judy Savage my ability to get sick at the wrong time, to visit a psychiatrist and hear him say, "This gal, I don't understand."

I, PATTI ROBERTS, do leave some of my love for Pediatrics to Ruby Hodgins, in hopes I can put the rest of it to practical use someday.

Testament

I, DOT BYRD, leave my love for Obstetric nursing and my ability to stay on a 1000 calorie diet and still gain weight to Carolyn Burke.

I, MARIE PHILLIPS, leave my great love for surgical floor and Urology patients to the Junior Class in sincere hope that they like to change sterile dressings.

I, SHIRLEY TUTTEROW, do will my love for nursing, R.M.H., and Catawba to Faye Donaldson whom I know will make good use of them.

I, WINNIE DAVIS, will all my 12 o'clock late leaves to Sadie Yost in hopes she can keep her boyfriend out of service and take advantage of them.

I, ALICE ALEXANDER, will my extra weight to anyone who may find use for it.

I, NANCY WHITE, will my ability to take pictures for "Confidential" without getting caught to Amy Lyerly.

I, DOT MASON, will my ability to receive uniforms from the laundry in assorted pieces while on affiliation to Ellen Lowman.

I, JEAN FIDLER, leave to Barbara Floyd my "shiny" white nurses' shoes, my torn uniforms, and my love for avacodo salads.

Class History

On September 3, 1957, fourteen young girls from near and far, unaware of the hard task ahead, began arriving at Rowan Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in Salisbury, North Carolina.

Entering were: Alice Alexander, Lucy Brown, Dorothy Byrd, Winifred Davis, Sandra Kimbro, Jean Fidler, Dorothy Mason, Marie Phillips, Carolyn Ragsdale, Patti Roberts, Anne Rosser, Wilhelmina Smith, Edith Staley, and Nancy White.

The first week consisted of orientation but soon to follow was a heavy schedule of Anatomy, Chemistry, Drugs and Solutions, Sociology, Psychology, Nursing Arts and Nutrition.

On September 16, we gained a new member Shirley Tutterow, giving us a total of fifteen.

The Freshman Class Officers were: President, Dorothy Byrd; Vice-President, Alice Alexander; Secretary, Jean Fidler; Treasurer, Nancy White; Advisor, Mrs. Grace Lee.

Our queens this year were: Dorothy Byrd for Halloween and Jean Fidler for Christmas.

Upon returning from Christmas vacation two of our classmates, Lucy Brown and Carolyn Ragsdale, had withdrawn.

After nine months of hard study June found us busy in Operating Room, Diet Kitchen, various other departments and summer vacations. At this time we were sorry to lose Anne Rosser.

In September, 1958, we became proud Juniors with the presentation of our black corner stripe. Classes were resumed with study of Orthopedics, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, and Dermatology, advanced courses in Medical and Surgical Nursing.

Junior Class Officers were: President, Winifred Davis; Vice-President, Shirley Tutterow; Secretary, Marie Phillips; Treasurer, Dorothy Mason; Advisor, Geneva Williams. Our queens this year were: Winifred Davis for Halloween and Nell Whitaker for Christmas.

In December we found part of our group packing to leave for affiliations; some for Torrance State Hospital, Pennsylvania, for Psychiatry; others to Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville, North Carolina, for Pediatrics. At this time we lost another classmember. Wilhelmina Smith.

On returning from affiliations we started three long months of Obstetrics. Happy were we on September 3, 1959—Seniors at last!! Receiving our long black bands made us more aware of our responsibility as future professional nurses.

Our officers this year were: President, Marie Phillips; Vice-President, Alice Alexander; Secretary and Treasurer, Edith Staley. Our queens this year were: Shirley Tutterow for Halloween and Dorothy Byrd for Christmas.

Without the help of Miss Rachel Suggs, our advisor, we would not have been able to complete our senior year successfully.

Class Prophecy

CLASS OF: 1960

TIME: 8 o'clock p.m., 1970—September

PLACE: Conference room of new Psychiatric Division of Rowan Memorial Hospital.

As hostess for the regular decade Alumni-meeting, I, Sandra Kimbro, flew in from California, where I am a nurse in the Rice-Davis Clinic for the emotionally disturbed child. I find myself analyzing my former classmates and am very curious and anxious to hear about their activities in ten short years.

Alice Alexander arrived late but as slim-trim as ever. She is married to a lawyer and lives in New York, where she does relief nursing by giving enemas, until clear, for patients in x-ray scheduled for barium enemas. She has three sets of triplets.

Her former roommate, Nancy White lives between Salisbury and Spencer. She does private duty at Rowan Memorial Hospital. She is currently nursing "Pop" J., her father-in-law.

Dorothy Byrd and Winifred Davis arrived together from Florida, both looking "fresh as daisies" in spite of the fact that they each have three growing boys to feed, cuddle, and pacify. Dot is working at an Army Base hospital in Florida, where she moved after marrying that certain one from West Point. Winnie isn't working as a nurse, but Al, her spouse, and those three sons keep her busy. Her husband flies jets and those boys keep her flying so she reports.

Dorothy Mason arrived in style—a police escort. She is now married and lives in Spencer in a big, white frame house. Our "friendliest" student of 1960 works as a nurse in the city jail for women.

Her ex-roomie, Edith Staley, is doing back-woods nursing in the mountains of North Carolina and as I understand, she rides a "hoss" and "totes" a rifle "better'n" Wyatt Erp.

Marie Phillips, "most likely to succeed" in our class, as I recall, has done just that. She is now a nurse for three urologists in Salisbury and she may be seen every day except Sunday "scurrying around" (to use her favorite words), changing dressings, starting L.V.'s and removing stitches.

Shirley Tutterow, "Miss Personality," lives in a small town, Pembroke, North Carolina, where she does reservation nursing. To prove that a personality is worthwhile in our esteemed profession, she has been voted "honorary chief" of one of the tribes for the past eight years. The first two years were spent in adjusting to married life and two paposes of her own. Her husband is a doctor.

Patti Roberts, Shirley's use-to-be roommate, is second in charge, no less, on 1st North. She is married and has a set of twins, who sing, dance, and are regulars on "Pecos Pete T.V. show." Her husband is a television announcer at the new Salisbury Television Station.

My old roomie, Jean Fidler, is head nurse on pediatrics at Davis Hospital in Statesville. Her husband is a C.P.A. and they have four darling girls all with dark-brown hair and blue eyes. Jean is the favorite nurse on "peds," because every afternoon she gives out "Brock" candy bars to the children.

In my analysis, I think you will agree that the class of 1960 has adjusted well, and all lead normal, healthy lives to make them useful citizens in a progressive nation and an advancing honorable profession.

Class Prophet

School Song

Through the years that we have cherished,
And our dreams foretold,
The story of our destined future
That these portals hold.

Angels of mercy always,
Striving thus for life,
Keeping yet unto our duty
Through the fearless night.

So we shine in white and beauty,
God's servants are we,
Dedicated to our nation
For eternity.

In the halls of R.M.H.
Our hearts will always dwell
And we'll praise our Alma Mater,
In her glorious realm.

And through predestination
This story thus is so,
Of a place called R.M.H.
And we love her so.

CHORUS

Hail Rowan, Oh Hail Rowan,
To thee we'll ever be true.
Loving, faithful, earnest workers
For the golden rule.

—Ann Gettys, S.N.
Jenny Hufford, S.N.

A Nurses' Prayer

Help me, Lord, to use my little skill,
As best I can, to do your Holy will.
Give me patience, charity
And, most of all, humility.
Let me find the peace of mind
That comes to those who serve mankind,
And by so doing serve You, too.
For this all I want to do.
Don't let me tire, don't let me shirk
Give me the strength to do my work.
Forgive me if throughout the day,
I don't always take the time to say
The customary prayers to You—
Let my prayer be the work I do.
